"This is an extraordinary adventure for parents and children... both fun and science-based!"

- Jean-Pierre Ranger, Parc Safari

"My grandchildren were enthralled with the endangered species maze. After an hour, they still hadn't tired of the journey. What a wonderful way to combine fun and education!"

- Barbara Wood, grandmother of girls aged 4 and 7

The intrinsic beauty of this program, which can handle 200 visitors at a time and hundreds more per hour, is that kids and families can play over and over again, with a new mission each time. All the while lending more and more meaning to their subsequent journey around the zoo meeting the animals with which they now have a personal connection.
